

FARMERS REQUEST FOR ASSISTANCE

Do you own a farm in New York? Do you need help in making your farming operation a profitable and sustainable business? CADE may be able to help. CADE works throughout the state of New York. Most clients are referred to us by former clients or partners but we welcome farmers to fill out a Request for Assistance form. Having an understanding of your needs and location will allow us to match up regional resources with your business. Please feel free to email, fax or USMAIL your answers to this request.

Farmer Request for Assistance:

Name:

Address:

Town and County :

Phone Number:

Home:

Cell:

E-mail & Website:

Describe your farming operation: Type of farming (i.e. vegetable, fruits, dairy, livestock, etc.), Size of operation (i.e. acreage, # of animals, # of employees, etc.) commodity production or value-added.

Describe your farming practices: i.e. conventional, organic, IPM, pasture based, grass-fed, tie stall, free-stall etc.

Describe your marketing methods: i.e. direct sales to individuals, cooperative, farmers' markets, CSA, retail outlets, wholesale, etc.

What are your major business needs: i.e. business planning, value added development, processing, distribution, marketing, brand development, etc.

What are your major financial needs: Equipment, land purchase, debt management, labor, fencing, etc.

Other pertinent information: